Our Farmers NEED You

As a result of the business impact of COVID-19, we know many people are looking for work and we have numerous seasonal vacancies available on our farms up and down the country. From fruit pickers and packers, to plant husbandry and forklift drivers, there are a wide range of roles available.

All the farms and vacancies available are shown on the map below. Follow the link to the British Summer Fruits website: To apply or to find out more information about a role, please contact the farm directly using the contact details listed on the pins on the map.
